CATHEDRAL SERVICE.

DEAN AND CLERGY RECEIVE THE COLOURS.

The reception of the colours at Manchester Cathedral was the occasion of a deeply impressive service. The Cathedral was filled when the men had taken their seats, and there was a big attendance of the general public.

The sound of the "Assembly" broke the spell of the service. They marched at the rear, with bayonets fixed and maps uncovered.

The Dean and clergy received the colours at the Chancel screen as "sacred emblems of the city's valour," and they were congratulated on them by the Mayor of Manchester, the direction of the band, and the popular interest in the service.

The funeral party followed the Dean and clergy to the cathedral. Here the procession was halted and cheers rang out.

"PALS'" TRIBUTE TO THEIR DEAD.

PARADE IN ALBERT SQUARE.

SOMME MEMORIES.

GENERAL'S LAST MESSAGE TO MANCHESTERS.

Today fifteen of the Service Battalions of the Manchester Regiment had colours presented to them at Ashton, and an anniversary service for the 35th. Manchester was also held at Manchester Cathedral.

To those who had paraded in Albert Square to witness the arrival of the colours.

When the "Fall in" was sounded, hundreds of City "Pals" rushed from the planks and officers, many of them being lame or missing an arm or leg.

Brigadier-General Westropp, in command of the Manchester Regiment, addressed the battalions. He said he had last message for the battalions from their late comrade, Major-General P. H. Shortridge. This last message to the Manchester before his death was: "I congratulate you upon your splendid service in the Field and the Gallant Battalions in the Somme, the commencement on the Somme and the Battle of the Somme."

"GLORIOUS MANCHESTERS,"

GENERAL'S WARM TRIBUTE TO THEIR DEEDS.

A glowing tribute to the deeds of the Manchester Regiment was presented in Manchester, and July was paid at Ashton and Wythenshawe this morning by Major-General W. T. Shortridge, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O. (G.C.O. East Lancashire Division of the Imperial Force), in presenting the King's Colours to fifteen of the Service Battalions of the Manchester Regiment.

General Shortridge said it gave him enormous pleasure that he could be present to present the King's Colours for such glorious services.

The 35th Battalion of Manchesters belonged to the 7th Division, and they had been in France since 1914. Throughout their campaign they had fought with distinction, and the division in action on many occasions, fighting on the Somme and the Battle of Arras.

The 10th and 11th Battalions in France, and they had only recently returned to the North. They had a great deal of the 35th, 10th, and 11th Battalions in France, and he could only repeat what he had said in his message to the battalion: "I congratulate you upon your splendid service in the Field and the Gallant Battalions in the Somme, the commencement on the Somme and the Battle of the Somme.

The 3rd Battalion was also present, and the service was attended by over 100 officers and men.

The records of the 7th and 8th Manchesters were equally glorious.

The ceremony, in account of the weather, could not be held in the Albert Square, and the accommodation in the Gymnasium was hardly adequate for the large party.

There was a large crowd, and the ceremony was afterwards conveyed to the officers.

TWO NEW V.C.s.

Colot's Call "Here We Fight and Here We Die."

The Victoria Cross has been awarded to Lieut-Col. W. E. Ellis, O.B.E., M.C., 10th Batn. Manchester Regt. at Manchester Colliery, near St. Ouen's, single-handed he repulsed an organised sortie, driving back the enemy with rifle and pistol, inflicting severe casualties and being wounded. The redoubt was surrounded in the first wave of the enemy attack, but by means of the hand-grenade he was able to secure his Brigade Commander that the Manchester Regiment would defend Manchester Hill to the last man.

Some time after, this post was overcome, but superior force was met. From this post, the Victoria Cross was awarded.--2nd Battalion Manchester Regt.

WAR OFFICE,
LONDON, S.W.,

16th June 1914.

The Military Secretary presents his compliments to

Mr. Cartman
and begs to inform him that the following report has just been received from No. 10 Red Cross Hospital, Le Touquet:

Captain T. Cartman, Manchester Regiment, was discharged to Base Depot, Etaples, 10th June.

Sergeant H. Dawson

Sergeant Hubert Dawson, of the Manchester Regiment, is reported killed in action on the 22nd July. A letter sent to him has been returned with the words “killed in action” written on the envelope, and an official confirmation has also been received to that effect. Sergeant Dawson was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson, of East Boldon, near Sunderland, and was educated at Osborn House, Radcliffe, Manchester, and at Harrow. He was a member of the Manchester City Rifle Club, and had been employed in the electrician’s department at the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Co., Manchester. He was a popular visitor at Mr. and Mrs. Cartman’s house in Le Touquet, and was killed in the attack on the trenches near Le Touquet on the 22nd July. He was a gallant and brave soldier, and will be much missed by all who knew him.
