Travelling By Road

Leave the M1 at Junction 25 (Derby) and follow signs for "Nottingham City Centre" along the A52 (dual carriageway). The A52 travels over one roundabout in pretty much a straight line, until you reach a large traffic lit junction with a footbridge, and various roads joining it. Keep in the lane for Nottingham City Centre, you basically turn right at this junction. The dual carriageway continues to another roundabout (note Toby Carvery on corner). You need to go straight over this roundabout (which then reduces to single lane). Go straight over the next roundabout (Ring Road), passing Queens Medical Centre (right). Approx. 1½ miles further on Derby Road begins to climb and you should appear on Canning Circus with the Police Station on the right. You need to be in the far right hand lane following the road along Wollaton Street. Take the second exit on the right (Vernon Street) and turn right back onto Derby Road. Keep in far left hand lane and take first exit left onto Upper College Street and then first left onto College Street.

If you leave the M1 at Junction 26, follow A610 signed to city centre. After a few miles you will go up a long hill with many traffic lights. Soon after the road levels off you will be at Canning Circus with the Police Station on the right. You need to be in the far right hand lane following the road along Wollaton Street. Take the second exit on the right (Vernon Street) and turn right back onto Derby Road. Keep in far left hand lane and take first exit left onto Upper College Street and then first left onto College Street.
